4. (Confidential - JMM) Called Miss Fusco, Personal Secretary to Senator Clifford P. Case, and explained I wanted to see the Senator at his convenience in response to his letter of 27 October to the Director regarding a Russian emigre organization and also his 27 September letter to Secretary of State Rogers regarding Government contracts with aircraft companies abroad which had been referred to us by State. She said the Senator was in a Foreign Relations Committee session but she would let me know when he could see me.

5. (Secret - JMM) Called Clark MacGregor, Counsel to the President for Congressional Relations, and explained that the Director planned to brief Chairmen Stennis, Ellender, Mahon and Hebert on some recent developments, and that I would brief the ranking minority members and staff chiefs of our Subcommittees on the same subject. Mr. MacGregor said this sounded fine and asked our views on the handling of the Senate and House leadership. I said I thought we would leave this up to him and he said this was acceptable.

6. (Secret - JMM) Called Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, who verified that Senator Margaret Chase Smith is indeed a full fledged member of our Appropriations Subcommittee.

7. (Secret - JMM) Called Helen Boyle, in the office of Representative George H. Mahon, and arranged for the Director to see the Chairman in his office, 2314 Rayburn House Office Building, at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, 5 November.

8. (Secret - JMM) Called Mrs. Ward, in the office of Senator John Stennis, and made a tentative date for the Director to see the Senator at 10:45 a.m. on 5 November in the Senator's office, 205 Old Senate Office Building. Mrs. Ward will call us if this arrangement is not feasible.

9. (Secret - JMM) Called Jessy Wolfe, in the office of Representative F. Edward Hebert, to make a date for the Director to see the Chairman the latter part of this week. When a mutually convenient time could not be worked out, I arranged to see the Chairman myself at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, 4 November.

10. (Secret - JMM) Called Maxine Hyde, in the office of Senator Peter Dominick, and made a date to see the Senator in his office at 4:00 p.m. on Friday, 5 November.
